ABOUT ME

I'm a Full-Stack Developer who loves learning new technologies and I am ranked in the top 0.25% of Web Developers at teamtreehouse.com. I have built everything from blogs and E-commerce sites, to in-browser Javascript games and I take pride in being pixel perfect.

Additionally, I also spent three years as a professional bookkeeper while I taught myself to code. Because of my unique mix of business, marketing, and technical expertise, I add a lot of value to any team I work with.
